Applying to the M.T. and Teacher Prep

In order to be fully licensed through our Masters of Teaching, VDOE approved initial licensure program, students must apply for BOTH the Masters of Teaching (M.T.) graduate degree program and a separate Teacher Preparation application (VCU ID required). The M.T. program and Teacher preparation are integrated, meaning that your M.T. program is built to meet the Virginia full licensure Teacher Preparation requirements.

M.T. Timeline suggestions

Students can start applying to their M.T. program up to a year in advance. See deadlines above to set your plan. If you are a current VCU student, you can apply to Teacher Prep before you apply for your M.T. program. Students outside of VCU must apply to the M.T. and be accepted in order to apply to Teacher Preparation.

Things to prepare for your Master of Teaching application:

- Received or pursuing a bachelor’s degree with a major matching the degree concentration with a 3.0 GPA
- Statement of intent- see Application Support resources on our website for tips
- 3 letters of recommendation (one academic, one professional and third either academic or professional)
- Official transcripts from all previous academic institutions (VCU student transcripts will be automatically pulled into your application file)
- Checked prerequisite requirements for your future M.T. concentration (see website for concentration specific resources)
- Submission of online graduate application

Teacher Preparation Timeline suggestions
Your current academic year standing (freshman, senior, graduated from your undergraduate program, VCU vs other institution graduate), will determine if you apply to teacher preparation and your M.T. program concentration at the same time or if you apply for teacher preparation or the M.T. first. The more you can do in advance, the better. If you graduate from an accredited institution outside of VCU, you will apply for teacher preparation after you have been accepted into the M.T. program and you have been given your VCU ID number. We will work with you on the deadlines based on when you are offered admissions.

Things to prepare for your teacher preparation application:
- Completed 60 or more college level credits- Semester completed: ______________
- 3.0 GPA (2.8 for secondary)- cumulative OR last 60 credits
- EDUS 301- Human Development and Learning @ VCU or equivalent: Semester completed: ______________
- Virginia Communication Literacy Assessment (VCLA): Date completed: ______________
- Online Teacher Prep application: Date submitted: ______________
- Descriptive statement (shortened version of your statement of intent)
- Other certification/transcript requirements as outlined in the online application
  (U.S. issued social security number, criminal conviction information, etc)

Your Path To Licensure “Gate” Information
The School of Education has adopted a Gate system for our initial licensure programs to highlight the major transition points for the Educator Preparation Program (EPP) matriculation. There are five gates as checkpoints to ensure candidate success and program completion. Not all gates apply to all programs. Based on the candidate’s degree goals and origin of undergraduate degree, candidates may complete some gates simultaneously or in a different order than stated here.

Gate 1: Teacher Preparation Admission
Gate 2: Practicum Admission
Gate 3: Graduate School Admission
Gate 4: Internship/Externship Admission
Gate 5: Exit Clinical Experience and Program

Note that this applies to students entering our programs from VCU. Students from all other institutions will complete the Graduate School M.T. Application first, and then will work with our licensure team to apply to Teacher Preparation once you have a VCU student ID.

For questions about this process, please email soeinfo@vcu.edu as you plan for your next academic steps.

Common FAQ’s
Q: What if I am past the deadline to apply for the M.T., do I have to wait a whole semester?!
A: We accept M.T. applications after the deadline on a case-by-case basis. Please email soeinfo@vcu.edu if you are worried about meeting the current deadline for applications.

Q: How can I figure out what program aligns with the licensure area that I want?
A: We know it can be confusing as we have new undergraduate programs as well as some programs are still only at the graduate level. Please review the “Future Teacher Program Map Resources” aligned with your teaching area to see all the different pathways to licensure that fit your future career goals.

Q: How can I make sure I am on the right track for the prerequisite academic requirements?
A: Feel free to submit a transcript review request form and email soeinfo@vcu.edu if you have questions. Each concentration also has a prerequisite resource PDF on the main page of each concentration.
