PH.D. IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP, POLICY AND JUSTICE

Our doctoral program is designed to transform students into producers of knowledge as researchers, policymakers, and scholars dedicated to advancing equity. Assignments, discussions, and activities are generated to develop and reinforce the skills needed for transformative change.

OUR MISSION FOR EXCELLENCE, INNOVATION AND COMMUNITY IMPACT

As members of a university in an urban area, we have a responsibility to serve the communities around us. This is especially true here at VCU, where so many underserved and disadvantaged are within our reach. Every day, our city, its schools and its students face unique challenges. But where there are obstacles, there are opportunities:

A CHANCE FOR CHANGE.

A CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE...

ACCOLADES FROM OUR ALUMNI

“Initially, I was unprepared to navigate the academic, political, and social contexts that define social justice issues. However, through my work in the doctoral program, I developed valuable research skills that can support and inform both policymakers and practitioners. I graduated with a solid network of cohorts, alums, and colleagues with whom I can partner.”

- Arielle Niemeyer, Ph.D. Graduate

“The members of the Department of Educational Leadership are interested in providing enriching opportunities for all students; whether crafting a unique externship experience; offering research and co-publishing opportunities; encouraging presentations at conferences; or just providing listening ears and words of wisdom. My Ph.D. program at VCU was strengthened because of the unwavering assistance of such a caring faculty and positioned me for an academic career.”

- Kerry Robinson, Assistant Professor, University of Tennessee
